There is no donation needed.

Oliver from 4D was lucky enough to be chosen to be mascot at Tuesday's home game against Peterborough.

Oliver met the players and got autographs.

He also had a pre-match kick-about with Bloomfield Bear!

Year 4 had an absolutely fabulous day at Tatton Park on Tuesday! They were all trained as a Viking Warriors and learnt all about the weapons, shields, armour and uniforms the warriors used and wore. They also learnt the war cry of 'Oooh Oooh Ahhh'! And shouted it at the top of their lungs! The children also learnt that the Saxons tried to befriend Vikings with bracelets - and they even had a go at weaving a bracelet! We also had to make flour from wheat and learnt how to beat it!

Children from 4P were threatened by Viking Blood-Axe with the slave market in Yorvic! Luckily, they managed to prove themselves worthy warriors and super skilled people, so he let them off of paying the Dane-Geld tax!
